With the resumption of construction please consider the following:
1. To increase permit throughput would it be possible to allow for issued permits to be emailed to the requestor to minimize in person contact and visits to the city offices?

2. As you prioritize construction projects can you consider including solar + storage on the list of projects to inspect first. These provide for protection against power shutoffs which is especially important during shelter in place and the upcoming fire season (where the last thing you'll want is a rush on grocery stores). In fact, Santa Clara County explicitly considered these projects to be essential during the past month of shelter in place: "These installations that provide backup power, like a solar plus storage system or a battery system, protect against impacts of a Public Safety Power Shutoff or an outage event that causes a temporary loss of power."

Hi,

A quick technical issue: D1. Is missing from the drop down menu above on "Agenda item".

I would like to provide a comment on D1. I think we should do our best to re-activate construction projects. Note that OSHA and this industry in general is heavily regulated for safety and those organizations are used to working with safety protocols. I hope we re-active (with safe working conditions at the earliest possible date).

Best, Dolores

Please allow construction to start at 1275 El Camino Real. South Bay construction is the general contractor on the project and all Covid-19 protocols are in place and PPE will be worn by all crew members.

Thank you

In consideration of the San Mateo County revised Shelter In Place, and allowing ALL construction to continue during the shelter in place, Commercial Construction projects are better prepared to comply with new Covid Guidelines than residential projects. Typically, the General Contractor (GC) on commercial contracts has a more regional approach and an understanding of compliance across many cities or counties. Although the GC on commercial projects is typically larger than residential projects, most of the subcontractors hired by the GC are still small businesses desperately ready to get back to work. In my opinion, the best way to get construction responsibly re-started may to begin with larger projects which are more prepared to be in compliance with new field requirements for Covid-19
